

NOTE: Any orientation session marked with an asterisk (*) is mandatory and you must attend.

Tuesday, 14th January

TWO WAYS TO ARRIVE:

Independent Travellers -

Check in at your accommodation will be available from 10.30am - please go straight to your flat where you will be greeted by a housing orientation guide. When you arrive, you will be provided with your housing pack and further information about the day ahead. Once you have checked in, you are free to explore the area around your flat. You must travel to Faraday House and arrive by 2.30pm to begin the orientation process.

Group Flight -

If you travelled on the group flight, you'll be met at Heathrow Airport by Syracuse London staff and directed into taxis. You'll go straight to your accommodation, where you will be greeted by one of our housing orientation guides to receive your housing pack. Leave your luggage, take a comfort break, and follow your guide on public transportation to Faraday House.

Thursday 16th January

Please attend your allocated mandatory Studying in London session according to your surname. After your Studying in London session on Thursday or Friday, you must submit a signed registration form to the Registrar in OGS 101 and a student database sheet to OGS 102 (both these forms can be found in your Welcome Pack). You will not have fulfilled UKVI requirements or completed registration until we receive these forms.

After completing your academic registration, drop in to OGS 103 to find out more about joining UCL Students' Union clubs & societies and Bloomsbury Fitness Gym. Ensure you collect your Oyster card from the Study Lab, where staff will load your semester's travel onto it. For questions about Love London or trips, go to SR 109.
