

Syracuse University
London

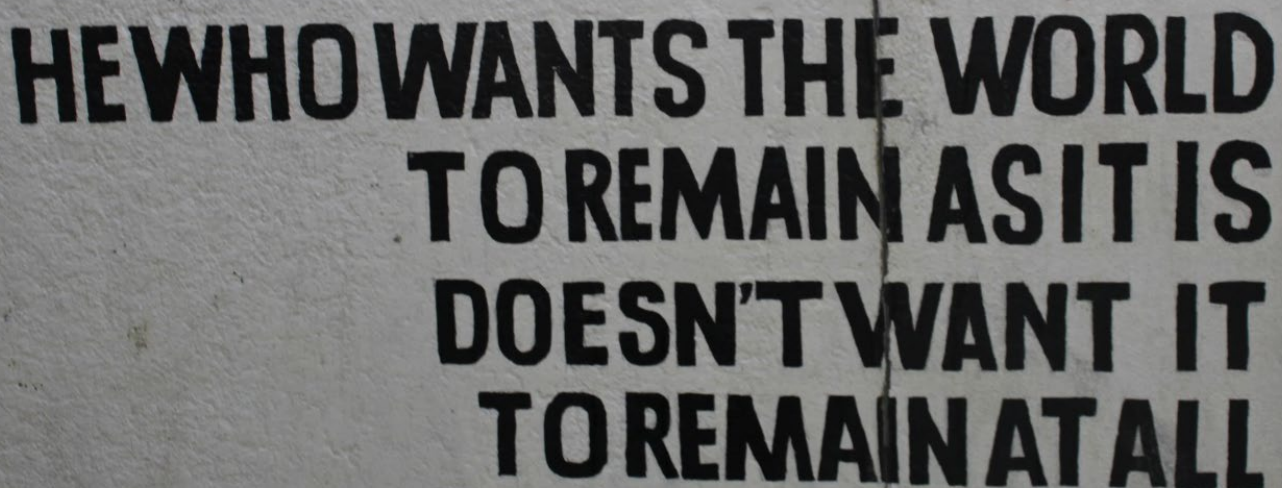

Faraday House
East Side Gallery

Celebrate the 30th Anniversary of the Fall of the Berlin Wall by adding a brick to our graffiti wall!

This installation mimics the East Side Gallery, an open-air series of murals painted on a mile-long remnant of the Berlin Wall. The Gallery is a monument to positive community interaction. Its murals celebrate the euphoria of reconnection while calling for freedom for all the world's people.

Grab a brick and add your own message of change. Rearrange the bricks. Tear down the wall.

This is a changing space without boundaries... showcase the world you want to see!

HE WHO WANTS THE WORLD TO REMAIN AS IT IS
DOESN'T WANT IT TO REMAIN AT ALL

