

uncover the city's secrets

Hidden London

19 September

Unseen City

25 September

Dogs to Docks to Dollars

17 October

Black Georgians

24 October

Strange Tales

6 November

Down by the Docks

20 November

Brixton

Meet the Guide: Dominic Burris-North

Dominic is a Blue Badge Tour Guide, born and raised in London, who loves to help people in getting to know his city better. His tours are designed to unravel the multitudinous layers of London's past and present and range in style from light-hearted and fun to serious and thought-provoking. Dominic's specialisms include London and the Transatlantic Slave Trade, the Black presence in Georgian London, Canary Wharf, the London Docklands and Brixton.

Images by Dominic Burris-North, Ethan Doyle White, and Mike Quinn

Unseen City

Sunday 19 September, 11am

look at some of the City of London's places and faces that often go unnoticed

From Dogs to Docks to Dollars

Saturday 25 September, 11am explore the London Dockland's transformation from Empire port to business district

The Black Presence in Georgian London

Sunday 17 October, 11am

trace the steps of Black Londoners living in the 1700s and 1800s, from boxers to aristocrats

Strange and Macabre Tales from the Big Smoke

Sunday 24 October, 11am

recount creepy stories, urban legends, and unusual traditions from the streets of London

Down by the Docks

Saturday 6 November, 11am

travel back in time to the era of pirates and press gangs, sailors and sea shanties

Brixton

Saturday 20 November, 11am

honor the Windrush Generation, discover street art, and critique gentrification